

CATHERINE ENTWISTLE– WINNER

Homes

I know where I belong
And what it means to me
To have a loving family,
A place for me to be
All these little things
That lighten up my life
Anyone can give
Give a child some light
There are thousands of children
Still waiting for a home
A place where they belong
A place to call their own
So many are neglected
So many are alone
What I want so much
Is to give them a home
I pray many think the same
And take into account
All the love they have received
And share it all out
For these children need love
Someone to care for them,
Tuck them in at night
This I wish to give
And hope others do too
For these children need love
Just like me and you
