

Come walk with me

Would you like to talk a walk with me?
My deserted world you can see.
Nothing but loneliness, hurt and fear.
Yes there is a meaning for every tear.

I live my lost life alone.
My emotions will one day be shown.
I'm just the kid they didn't care about.
When will they finally hear me out?

It isn't fair to live a life of neglect.
Where is my respect?
When will my heart feel happiness?
My world be calm, never ratty.

Oh! Now I see.
You don't want to take a walk with me.
In your world I will never be happy.
Will my life ever be a happy song?
