

LUCY BROCKLEHURST – FINALIST

Belonging

Lay down the foundation of happiness and joy,
Screw together the love that makes a happy family,
Begin to saw down the bits and pieces
That join up as one,

Build up the 4 walls that makes
You feel safe and secure in this loving home,
Place each screw like it's the last,

Now you need to fill the gaps
With excitement and polish them down neatly,

Expect shouting and shrieking if Someone cheats in a game
Of monopoly because that's what family's all about.
